

Spring 2008 Knife Skills Class Draws Overflow Crowd!

Once again we were pleased to have Clark Stone, long time Wusthof cutlery representative, conduct a hands-on knife skills class! The class has become so popular that we scheduled an extra class and we still had a waiting list! We will try to offer the class again this fall, so keep checking the internet for the latest schedule of classes.

Among the skills we learned this time was the proper technique to easily make chiffonade. But enough chatter; let's get straight to the photos...
